NEW FEATURE! Ask a Relocation Question!

Ask TD's NEW self described "Your Friend in Relocation", Sara Cho any question about your relocation issue. Email Sara at info@tenantsdirect.com.

Sara,

I've worked hard for the furniture in my apartment and was thinking about getting insurance. What will the renters insurance cover?

Debbie Patterson

Madison, WI

Debbie,

Good question. For less than $8 a month, in most cases, renters insurance will cover your valued home items and heirlooms up to $25,000 or more and provide $100,000 of personal injury insurance and $50,000 worth of property damage insurance. Renters insurance can even cover legal expenses. A typical renters insurance policy covers your property in the event of: fire, theft, lightning, smoke and water damage from plumbing, among others.- SC

Sara,

I'm in the process of moving and need a few best practices. I feel overwhelmed and having 2 kids doesn't help me stay organized. I need to make sure the move goes smoothly and I can stay on top of bills and other household needs. What can you recommend?

Tanya Walker

Washington, D.C.

Tanya,

Sounds like you have a lot on your hands! Here are a few quick tips that I've learned to live by when moving.

- Be sure to fill out a change of address form at your local post office.
- Contact local utility, cable and phone companies to connect service.
- Contact banking institution to update checking and/or saving accounts.

Also, check out our moving tips. It's something you can print off and read once the kids are asleep.- SC

Another Happy TD Visitor !

For most of my life I did my own moving, I'm sure you all know the story, it's hard work, takes all day and multiple trips and by the time you get everything into the apartment you're too tired to unpack! Well that won't happen to me again. My name is Dave and I am a lifetime customer of Tenants Direct. I have used their moving services for my last two moves, and will continue to do so as long as I keep moving.

They take all the hassle out of moving, All I had to do was enter my info online and they quickly called me to set up a time. Their movers were fast and reliable. Also, the cost was great and I got a built-in rebate as well! I highly recommend Tenants Direct to anyone that's tired of doing all the work themselves.

On a related note, their movers were professional and very careful with some special items of mine. I play in an original Dallas rock band called BlackList, and some of our musical equipment had to be moved each time. They were extremely careful with it and took special care to place it where no harm would come to it. A lot of other movers wouldn't have taken the time to be careful with such fragile (and expensive!) equipment. You can check out our music by clicking here and here. Thanks to Tenants Direct everything still works!
